Letters of John Huss
Translated by Campbell Mackenzie

Personal correspondence of Bohemian religious reformer John Huss (Jan Hus) from 1411 when he was exiled from Prague through his death by burning as heretic in 1415 by order of the Council of Constance. These were first published in 1536 by the German Protestant reformer Martin Luther and his introduction is included here. - Summary by Rom Maczka

Read by Rom Maczka. Total running time: 06:10:34

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.

Cover picture: flames by Petr Kratochvil from publicdomainpictures.net, portrait by J.L. Gabor (1908). Copyright expired in US, Canada, EU, and all countries with author’s life +70 yrs laws
Cover design by TriciaG. This design is in the public domain.